Want to Talk? Try Our Chatline!

As we get older, we can find ourselves with fewer regular and positive interactions with other people. Family, friends, and social connections that once brought us a sense of purpose and connection can leave us feeling empty by their loss. Whether it be loss through death or divorce, or friends moving away we have all felt disconnected at some point in time. You do not have to feel alone. If you want or need someone to talk to, Silver Connect is here for you.

Silver Connect offers adults age 50 and above a chance to connect with friendly volunteers for emotional support, reassurance, resources and opportunities to share life's experiences and to feel engaged and connected through sincere, lively and heartfelt conversation. If you or someone you love would like to chat with one of our volunteers call Silver Connect today!
